THE PRE-GAME WARMUP

alfway between Rome and Naples on the Tyrrhenian sea reposes the alluring town of Gaeta, Italy, ancient summer home of the emperor Tibére and recent site of the 1991 Hobie Cat 18 World Championship. The mild climate, clear warm waters and regular winds drew sailors speaking (various forms of) English, German, Danish, Dutch, French, Hebrew and, of course, Italian, to the sixth edition of this always highly competitive, bi-annual event.

Helping the worldly and wise competitors enjoy the June 27 - July 7 event was the host Summit Hotel. And enjoy it they would, thanks to the sailing section of the Nautical School of the Guardia di Finanza, the Nautical Club of Gaeta, the Italian Hobie Cat Association, Fleet 383, and in particular commodore Antonio Nocca and Leonardo Lacroix. All were appreciated for their competence, their courtesy, and very warm reception to all the people who came.

THE LINEUP

1989 champion Gary Metcalfe was not on hand to defend his title, but ten other Australian teams were. So, too, were several sailors from South Africa, America and many European countries. The eager non-qualified teams were said to be as ambitious for victory as the tried-and-true competitors. In all, 62 teams representing 12 countries qualified for the semi-finals.

A LOOK AT THE CONTESTANTS

Hobie Cat events may be a melting pot of nations, but the gathering in Italy also reflected the wonderful differences contributing to the spice of Hobie life. Speaking of food, rumor had it some Australians soon had their fill of pasta, pizza and pepperoni and were seen paying "through the nose" for a good, thick steak to wolf down at breakfast, no

Halfway through the competition, the Israeli team analyzed its elimination with a mixture of wisdom, resignation and determination. "We thought we were good because in Israel, where all types of cats race together, our team is the best and everyone copies us. But now, after watching the Australians and Americans tune their boats - generally with a maximum of mast rake — we have come to realize we have a lot to learn."

The Israelis' observation confirms a significant point; as the largest onedesign class in the world, the Hobie racing circuit, with its strong competition, makes Hobie racers the toughest to beat in any catamaran race.

An interesting note as to the equality of the sexes: the first three winning teams were comprised of male skippers and female crews. In fact, half the top ten teams were mixed.

AND THEY'RE OFF!

Semi Tough

The weather had its own scorecard, with the initial races beginning on a hot day and a calm sea. Soon, as the winds and the competition heated up, the winners of early races grabbed a decisive lead from the start and held on until the finish.

The first three races saw an equal number of victors; namely, American Alan Egusa in the first race, Aussie Clive Kennedy (remember that name!) in the second contest and fellow Aussie Gavin Luxton in the third (and again in the

Although destined to finish second overall, Jeff Alter had his share of problems in the beginning, having to abandon the third race when his trapeze broke and his Cat capsized. He and crew Kathy Ward came back with gusto to win the sixth.

Finals Start Early

ight weather pushed the finals ahead one day, robbing competitors of their cherished day off but giving them an opportunity to finish the racing despite the calm. It was determined the final score would include points accrued from the semi-finals.

Shifting winds and shifting fortunes were the emblems of the first race of the finals. Jeff Alter took the lead at the start of the seventh race, but his preoccupation with the fast-gaining Kennedy clan precluded his wind watching; before he could say "Veni, Vidi, Vici!" ("I came, I saw, I conquered," to those of us more familiar with pig Latin than the real thing), the Ferrone brothers gave him an Italian dressing down and passed him to windward.

Two new names surfaced in the eighth. Australian Dart Stuart led all the way ... until the end, when he was beaten by the flying Dutchman, Onno Van Derplaat.

More Light Winds And Heavy Competition

The American teams celebrated Independence Day by declaring their subjugation to foreign competition. Again, the breeze was extremely light and constantly shifting. Clive Kennedy remained in firm control of first place, while compatriot Gavin Luxton moved into second.

Later, another race, another triumphant Italian face: Enrico Maltagliati, a sailing instructor familiar with these racing waters, swept within two points of Jeff Alter.

Kennedys Compound Victory

After an involuntary day off due to wind (as in none), the July 6 finale gave Clive Kennedy the opportunity to prove without a doubt his prowess in light as well as heavy weather.

The tension was high and the wind was low for the final race, with the title up for grabs until the end. Striving valiantly to grab it was one Jeff Alter, who took the lead at the first mark, giving his wife, Laurie, palpitations as, glued to her binoculars, she cheered him on. Unfortunately for Alter, at the second mark downwind the Kennedys recovered 20 boats to come in fourth in the race and first overall.

In the final standings, Alter and crew Kathy Ward captured second; Aussie George Owen and crew Tracy Wood took third; Italians Enrico Maltagliati and Silenzi Reno were fourth; Aussies Gavin Luxton and Micheal Butler came in fifth. (For complete race results, see page 50 of the September/October 1991 issue of HOTLINE.)

"It took me 15 years, but now I'm here!" were Clive's winning words, spoken amidst a victory celebration of wine, rum-coca and beer.

THE STARS OF THE GAME

The Kennedy clan of Clive and Donna are becoming as well known in Australian racing circles as the American Kennedys are for their political (and other) exploits. The reason: they can sail circles around just about everybody else!

Clive, a builder, and his wife and constant crew, Donna, live near Sydney. Two years ago they won the Australian championship on their 18; now, they're victorious worldwide.

LOOKING AHEAD

In 1993, the seventh Hobie 18 World Championship probably will be in a windy location such as Noumea or somewhere in Australia. Is there a sailor among the thousands of 18 sailors around the world who can take the throne away from the mighty Aussies?

Six Wills, No Losses For the sixth time in a row, a sailor from down under rose to the sailor from down under rose to the top of the Hobie 18.
